

Psalm 1: “The Watered Tree”

Tune: “All Glory Be to Christ” (Auld Lang Syne)

1. How blest the man who does not walk where wicked counsel leads;
who doesn't stand where sinners talk, or sit in scoffer's seat.
2. But in the Law is his delight, the Law of God above;
he meditates both day and night, upon this Law of love.
3. He shall be like a planted tree where streams of water flow;
whose leaves shall be forever green; whose fruit shall always grow.

(Chorus)

How blest when Law is our delight; how blest when it is still our meditation day and night; that we might do his will.

4. While we will find prosperity in all we labor in,
the wicked like the chaff will be, when blown by mighty wind.
5. No sinner will before him stand, nor with God's people be when Yahweh issues his command his banishing decree.
6. How happy are the ones who choose to ponder and obey;
who, for the right, the wrong refuse; the Lord approves their way.

(Chorus)

How blest when Law is our delight; how blest when it is still our meditation day and night; that we might do his will.

Topics: The Word of God, Fruitfulness, Sanctification

Lyrics: ©1995 Timothy M. Shorey