

Psalm 18:20-30: “The Lord Rewards the Righteous”

Tune: “Morning Has broken” (“Christ Be Beside Me”/traditional gaelic Tune)

1. God has rewarded me in his justice
He has accorded what is due;
For I am one—who’s clean and righteous
And I have done, what he told me to.
2. I have refused to sinfully wander
I will endure in keeping his laws
I always choose his precepts to ponder
I am secure in his righteous cause.
3. You show your mercy to those of mercy
With all the blameless, blameless you are;
Those who live purely you will treat purely;
You fool the shameless crooked of heart.
4. You save the humble, lowly in spirit,
The proud and sneery you will dismay;
I will not stumble, let sinners fear it—
I run unwearied, all of the day.
5. His way is holy, blameless, unfailing
His Word will never error yield;
I trust it fully, it is prevailing,
Refuge forever, mighty shield.
