

Psalm 5: "I Groan That You Will Hear"

Tune: "He Is Lord"

1. O my Lord, give your ear;
God and King I groan to you that you will hear.
Every morning I, will lift up my cry;
I pray to you, o Lord.
2. You delight, not in sin.
Proud and evil men are never welcomed in.
The deceitful man, will not ever stand,
before your presence Lord.
3. But I may, enter where you abide—in humble reverence worship there.
Lead in righteousness, when my foes oppress;
make straight your way, o Lord.
4. They have no, honesty;
death and ruin are their words, and flattery.
If they will not turn, and the truth now learn;
return their guilt, o Lord.
5. But let all those rejoice
who have trusted you, let them lift up their voice.
For you did defend, and your blessing send,
and favored us, o Lord.
